Interlinking of rivers

1618. SHRI K.P.K. KUMARAN: Will the Minister of WATER RESOURCES be pleased to state:

(a) what are the latest developments in the matter of inter-linking Indian rivers in general and the peninsula rivers in particular; and

(b) whether while addressing a Press Conference at Coimbatore in Tamil Nadu recently he had said that matters are moving at a natural pace and the farmers of Tamil Nadu are at their wits end to give any concrete shape to this abstract phrase and whether he propose to offer a clarification so that these farmers may find a ray of hope?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF WATER RESOURCES (SHRI JAY PRAKASH NARAYAN YADAV): (a) The Ministry of Water Resources (MOWR) (erstwhile Ministry of Irrigation) and Central Water Commission (CWC) formulated a National Perspective Plan (NPP) for Water Resources Development in 1980 envisaging inter-basin transfer of water from surplus basins to deficit basins/areas which comprises of two components, namely, Himalayan Rivers Development Component and Peninsular Rivers Development Component. National Water Development Agency (NWDA) was set up under the MOWR in 1982 for carrying out various technical studies to establish the feasibility of the proposals of NPP and to give concerete shape to it. Based on various studies conducted, NWDA has identified 30 links (16 under Peninsular Component & 14 under Himalayan Component) for the preparation of Feasibility Reports (FRs). Out of these, FRs of 14 links under Peninsular Component and 2 links (Indian Portion) under Himalayan Component have already been completed. Further, a Memorandum of Understanding for the preparation of Detailed Project Report (DPR) of one of the links in Peninsular Component Namely Ken-Betwa link was signed among the Central Government and State Governments of Madhya Pradesh and Uttar Pradesh
